A friend narrated to us a day or two since an anacodote of early times in West Tennessee, which we will attempt to repeat even at the risk of losing the graphic simplicity of his conversational narrative.

Some eighteen or twenty years since a well-known resident of Tipton county was put on his trial, charged with the murder of his wife. As usual in such cases, popular feeling was largely against him, and all the eloquome and ingensity of his counsel were required to make any impression in his favor upon a jury, which, however impartial it might desire to be in the consciousness of sworn duty, could not but see the waves of popular prejudice surging in upon it.

A Golden Deposit —Mr. G. W. Pettibone, of Vt (says the Poughkeepsie Telegraph.) has deposited in the Farmers and Manufacturers' Bank of this village, six bags of California gold. Four of them contained dust, and two of them were tilled with lumps. The largest pieces in the letter weighing three and a half pounds, and was worth $750. The six bags weighed upward of two hundred pounds, and were valued at $48,000.

ABSONDED.—King. Story & Co. merchants of New Albion, Cattaraugus Co. offer a reward of $500 for the apprehension of John N. Kinney, who was employed by them to go to Perrysbury, Cattaraugus Co. and obtained $2,000 for them. He drew the money in $5 s, Middletown Pa. Bank,

CAPITAL CONVICTION.—At the Westchester yer and Terminer, Michael Judson was convicted Over and Terminer, Michael Judson was convicted of the murder of Daniel Kain, at Somers, on the 4th of July last. The sentence of the Court was suspended and an order granted, allowing the prisener's counsel thirty days to prepare a bill of exceptions to remove the case to the Supreme Court, for the purpose of setting, selicity. Court, for the purpose of setting aside the verdict and obtaining a new trial.

MURDEREUS CONVICTED.—Geo. Williams and Thomas Brown, who robbed and murdered Mr. Harvey J. Hewett, at Peoria, Illinois, have been Harvey J. Hewett, at Peoria, Ill tried and found guilty of murder.
